- Althings shall begin again as soon as we can; James Bay New Horizons Centre is still closed to the public and will likely have a rental fee increase. May need to be discussed pending actual confirmation from site.

B&B Update – Baroness Anna Melyes and Baron Wulfgar Bradaxe 2021-05

This past month, things have been a bit quiet but really, we can't blame anyone for that with the record breaking temperatures cooking us slowly. We hope everyone is safe and healthy and finding ways to beat the heat.

SEALION RECAP:

We had a war! Sealion War was hosted online by Lions Gate and it was a ton of fun! When a virtual event is set, the planners have an idea and they basically set it off into the universe and hope it connects with the people you like. Seagirtians and Lions Gaters, you more than met our hopes and expectations, and we are still finding the words to describe how positively blown away we are at the engagement you created. You have each inspired us in your own ways, whether through song, wordsmithing, shiny armour and gorgeous gardens. You made us long for the range and eric, and especially seeing your faces around the bardic fire.

Sealion happened through your support, many judges, organizers, participants and message responders (I'm looking at you, you know who you are and you helped us enormously with your support). Special thank yous go to Their Excellencies Arianna and Cyneric who organised this event and spent a lot of time supporting us in getting Sealion off the ground. Also thanks to our judges and points organizers, Sir Brand, Simon, Aspasia, Malys, Wulfstan, Greta and you all made this event lighter and brighter with your help and organization. Also thanks to James Llewellyn, Isabella de Firenze, Seamus MacDonald and Mistress Elina your help with court, whew! We did it! We want to recognize, especially, Jazzy McIntosh and Halima Al-Rakkasa for being people who won entire war points for Seagirt with their entries. You are both treasures and your skills lift us up.

We personally want to congratulate Lions Gate for being so formidable Seagirt was overcome and lost the battle. We ask you to join us as we raise a toast to the victors as they fought hard against a tide of Seagirtians and deserve a ton of respect for doing so. We are already dreaming of next year when we have strong hopes of doing this in person and having another GREAT time. In case you weren't able to attend court, we want to send a message of how important it is to be supportive of each other. Everyone who participates in our organization deserves to shine with their own light and be who they want to be, it is literally what we are all about. Please let us know if there is anything you want to do, or have an idea of what you would like to see in that direction. We are here to listen and support.

We have also recorded our court and it is up on our YouTube channel. We let everyone know before starting recording that they could turn off their cameras if they wanted to and/or hide their names as privacy is important.

Apart from the war, we did have a surprise in that her Grace Nasheet al-Rakkasa came by to present us with gifts from the King and Queen of Avacal. This was unexpected and very charming; for this, we are grateful. We will be sending them a thank you card soon.

Some people have been exceedingly busy with successful projects, not the least of which is T'sai T'ien P'u's (Jaime Tiampo) herculean efforts to put together a 'back to practice' plan including documents and training seminars. Knowing he is a busy person, it is with our hearts that we thank him for everything he has been doing to bring us forward, out of isolation, in a safe manner.

Kudos also go to all the Athenaeum participants, for those who don't know, Athenaeum is a non-competitive event where members of the populace display their skills and given feedback (it's a whole lot more than that, but let's just keep it simple for time's sake). Among those presenters, Isabelle de Firenze with her Indigo display, which took a lot of time and work to put together, represented Seagirt very well. Thank you and kudos to you, Isabella.

Wulfgar has pretty much completed his work on a bench to make attending distant events a bit easier as we will use that as a stand in for the thrones when packing 'light.'

Now that procedures are in place, we are looking forward to seeing our marshals hosting practices and seeing everyone at upcoming althings. We want to make sure that everyone is within their comfort zones as much as possible. Please practice kindness and patience as we move out of our isolation and into group events. We recognize that adjustments are continually being made to Provincial rules as well as in our organization and we will work to make sure everyone is clear on what is happening. Regardless of rules, if you choose to practice further steps for safety, we welcome and respect that.

As the Sea parts, Seagirt Rises!

Yours in Service,

Baronö Aniko Melyes

Hello!

No practices to report... but I am working on a plan to have practices again very soon! Have been in contact with the farm-range site, have taken the Principality's Covid marshal training, and am working on a plan to have practices up and running again in July. More on practice plans incoming!

Baronial archery marshal

- Check the Facebook page and forum for practice events, where times, dates, addresses, and COVID safety protocols will be available!

Thrown Weapons – Athelina Grey 2019-05-07

There has been no activity in June.

The branch archery marshal and I started on an inventory of baronial equipment last weekend.

Tir Righ back to sport training has been attended: practice proposal submitted and approved by Seagirt Seneschal.

Thank you to Baron Wulfgar for wresting the outhouse from the clutches of the wasps.

Reminder that all MIC's for events must have been trained in the principality back to sport training.

If you have a marshal card that expired in 2019 or 2020, you have until the end of 2021 to get it renewed without needing to go through the full marshal promotion thing.

Looking forward to seeing folks at practice: reminder that there are more rules now, including no sharing of stuff between folks at practices. Please bring chair/hat/water/snacks. Limited loaner gear will be available, to be reserved before practice. More info to come!

Yay!

Work is still being done on the Tapestry. All three panels of the original tapestry have had the navy blue backing fabric removed. Backing fabric has also been washed/measured/stored. New backing fabric was purchased for an excellent price, thank you Caroline at Gala 😊 The new backing fabric has been passed to Lady Lina and she has sewn the new backing onto two of the lengths of the original tapestry, thank you Lady Lina! And several people in the Tapestry Work Group are embroidering panels for the continued work on the history of Seagirt.
