Scribe - Vemundr 2018-09-04

Greetings all,

Seagirt Yule had four awards created and given out, as well as several backlog awards that had been created for previous events. Thanks again to Anikó, Morgaine, Athelina, and Isabel de la Roche for their scribal contributions to Yule, as well as to those who had previously done backlog awards.

I still have Kingdom (for the reign starting at 12th Night) and Principality (for the reign ending at Feb Investiture) blank charters to paint if people want them.

SEALS

We have found a local supplier for our new Baronial seals.

Kings Wax - <https://www.kingswax.com/> - has quoted me $100 for the 2" Great Seal and $50 for the 1" Lesser Seal, Canadian funds.

For comparison, the US-based Nostalgic Impressions charges $90 USD for 2" and $45 USD for 1", roughly $175 CAD plus S&H from Florida.

He also sells the flexible unbreakable gluegun wax used by both Kingdom and Principality. That is $1.75/stick, or $1.50 for 50 sticks.

A suitable glue gun (full size, low-temp capable) is about $20 from Canadian Tire/Michaels/any number of other places.

My recollection is that Adalwulf's online auction raised just over $400.

Accordingly, I'd like to propose the following:

Up to $200 (allowing for taxes) for two seals, artwork to be approved by the Coronets.

Up to $25 for a suitable glue gun.

Up to $75 for wax.

Remaining money from the auction to be held for future purchases of wax or other related needs for the Barony.

I can cover these purchases and send receipts in for reimbursement afterward if this is approved.

Seamus pointed out that seal artwork would have to be officially released to the Barony using An Tir's art release waivers, which is fine.

Next event is Gentle Arts, rapidly approaching. Awards for that have already started. Please get award recommendations in to the B&B for Daffodil and other future events.

*Yours in Service,
Vémundr Syvursson*

- ❖ Approved up to $300 for purchase of seals and wax materials.

Greetings!

December was quiet-ish, but we still had an average of 3 people per practice, and a newcomer!

Site related note: outhouse seems to be collecting runoff/rainwater. How do we fix that before the water level gets too high? I am not wise in the ways of outhouse management...

I will be away for January and might not be able to run practice.

Aniko is arranging an axe making class. – A gentlemen in Metchosin makes axes and she is arranging dates and prices.

Web Minister – Esa inghean Macalasdair 2018-07-03

Greetings!

I unfortunately will not make council tonight. Not many changes this month, however I added Anne Greystoke as Siren of Seagirt (Bardic Champion).

Regarding the Glauouses, currently we have all editions back to 2000 on the website: http://seagirt.tirrigh.org/glaucous_home/

However, even with the requested storage upgrade from the Kingdom Webminister (from 500MB to 1GB), we don't have enough space to upload all the previous Glauouses. The original scanned PDFs were 3.5 GB, and even compressed they couldn't all be uploaded given the presence of existing files necessary to run the website (the newsletters from the 1990s were 500 MB alone).

While the PDFs were OCR'd (character recognition), the quality is variable - the process didn't recognize all text characters (especially in older editions), and so many words have spaces in them or a combination of numbers and letters, thus keyword search functionality wouldn't be very effective. But these files are much smaller and could be uploaded online.

One solution to the space issue could be to store the historic Glauouses on a separate (non-Tir Righ) server. However, another issue is we have been told that in order to post archived newsletters online, we need to redact all personal information contained in them (e.g., phone numbers), which has not been done. So it might be better to keep these private and grant access to only those who request it.

Web Minister*

We created three awards and an A&S champion's warrant for Gentle Arts, including the most spectacular war-scribing I've seen yet from HL Athelina for Greta's scroll, which still had wet paint on it when handed over!

I still need to get final art to the B&B for their approval for the seals, so no update there.

I am into the second half of my two year term of office now, and would really like to have an active Deputy Scribe who might wish to take the position over at the end of this year. If you are interested let me know and we can go over what the office requires.

Please get award recommendations in for Daffodil!

This past month we had our first Bardic Allthing to be held in quite a while, thank you Jazzy! We had quite a turnout with much laughter and singing. One of our Allthings was canceled due to the weather. And our last Allthing of the month was a craft and dance night held by Athelina. We had quite a few people out for both, 12-15ish. And our Allthings for February are already filled up!

We are currently proceeding on interesting times, currently we are not to hold events until 10 May, Sealion is currently still on the calendar, this may change, as soon as more information is available I will ensure it is posted. If sealion is cancelled this year lionsgate will run sealion 2021.

I am proud of our barony for adapting to this situation, arts and sciences are still very much active in the barony, weekly online meetings are being held and we are attracting people from lionsgate and appledore who have been attending.

Quarterly reports are due by the 15th of april please submit them ASAP so I have the information for my report.

From kingdom

Online meetings, all official online meetings must be posted to the barony website with the link 2 weeks in advance with a proposed agenda.

We are not required to hold monthly council meetings unless this violates our customary

All online meetings must follow financial policy and customary for the barony as well as all society, kingdom, and principality law.

B&B Update – Baroness Lucy Holgrove & Baron Edward Holgrove 2018-08

(Paraphrased statement from His Excellency)

No Sealion or May Crown, probably not July Coronation, and September Crown is unlikely. Being realistic. We need to come together as a group, socially and individually. This is a good time to support each other in our projects and continue meeting in online spaces to come together socially and stay connected. Shout out to Tatiana, Juliana, and Aniko for their efforts to create online spaces.

Interesting times!

Daffodil-that-wasn't had two Champion Warrants created for it by me, and a pair of awards both done by brand-new scribal contributors. My thanks to Isabel (Shannon) and Mael (Breanna) for their hard work on their first-ever awards. They shall go on to honour their deserving recipients in due course.

Charter painting has crashed to a halt; many of our usual painters are or were busy with their own projects and distributing blanks in these times of social isolation is challenging. I do still have blank Kingdom charters available and can arrange contact-free pickup or delivery if desired. I have no idea what is going on with Tir Righ Principality charters for the new-in-February reign at this time.

Stay in contact, try to keep creating, and stay well, everyone.

"You only have two choices - you keep making art or you stop. And if you keep creating art, you may make magic, you may make things that other people need. You may make the things that you need to get through the darkness." - Neil Gaiman, in an interview with NZ media earlier in March.

Yours in Scribal Service,
Vémundr Syvursson

- Kingdom is not currently planning any "Virtual Courts", nor do we have protocol in place. Not sure when the demand for charters will come back. There will possibly be post-reign duchal courts? Though nothing is decided.

PANDEMIC! But aside from that we have had two virtual A&S "gatherings". They went quite well, about 15-18 ish people. And it was pretty cool to have some of our northern neighbors and even a couple of people from the mainland participate.

Runa Dagsdottir

Web Minister – Esa inghean Macalasdair 2018-07-03

Greetings!

There have been some COVID-19 related changes to the website including notices on the Home, Meetings & Practices, and Annual Events pages. The notice for online council has been placed in the sidebar of all pages, as well as under Council on the Meetings & Practices page. The Daffodil event has been posted as cancelled and more information will follow as to its rescheduling.

I've also added a menu link to the new Kingdom website for online events:

<https://www.antir.org/events/online/>

I will follow up with Jazzy as to the status of the latest Glaucous, as I believe there were some additional changes to be made before dissemination.

Esa
Web Minister

TUTR – Vacant

- Halveigh is officially released from the TUTR position.
- Barony would still like to host online TUTR events, even without a TUTR officer.

UVIC Medieval Club

- Currently nothing going on, closed when An Tir did. Cancelled some fun stuff, like raptor visit, some more workshops that were being planned. Hoping to reopen again in the fall semester if An Tir has reopened.

- All UVic funds were withdrawn and are currently in Isabella's account pending being transferred back into the UVic Medieval Club account when UVic reopens.
- In stores a St Giles marshalling staff was found and returned to the club. If the club goes dormant again, it will be returned to Seagirt stores.

Event Updates:

2020

Daffodil – Mar 14-15 – Aniko – CANCELLED

- Because the event was cancelled with less than 30 days notice, deposit on the hall was lost, so there is a loss of $375. Loss may be submitted to Kingdom for potential reimbursement, but that decision is made at the Kingdom level on a case-by-case basis.
 - Consensus in the meeting was to absorb the loss and not submit for reimbursement.

Comic-Con – Mar 20-22 – Morgaine/Isabella – CANCELLED

- Still waiting on more information as Comic-Con may be rescheduled, but for the time being it is cancelled.

Sealion War – May 22-24 – Lionsgate

- Currently still a go, likely to be cancelled depending on how things go. If Sealion 2020 is cancelled, Lionsgate gets Sealion 2021, and then we will continue rotating from then on.

SST – Jul 3-5 – Ti'en Po

- Event is still available to go, however the COVID-19 situation is being monitored. "Go or no go" date would be the first week of June, so final decision will be made then, pending government quarantine information and Kingdom permissions.

Trials – Aug 7-9 – Seeking bids

Grand TUTR – Oct 30-Nov 1 – Isabella

- Not actively being worked on, but if it is allowed to go through it may be the only Seagirt event of 2020, so if possible Isabella is looking at ways to include all aspects of the Barony, including combat.

I actually have things to report! Sort of.

There is an effort at Kingdom level to get a basic set of charters ready for the next Crowns, given that the current plan is to have a Crown Tourney in the morning and crown the new set that afternoon. This is underway through a dedicated Facebook group, and if anyone who isn't already involved would like to be, please contact me.

There are Kingdom charters for the current reign around; Aniko has painted a few and I still have a few blanks. Happy to ferry those around the city if someone wants one or several.

I have no idea what is going on with Principality Charters for the current Tir Righ reign, and have to confess I keep forgetting to follow up to find out.

Just because we're not doing in-person events doesn't mean you shouldn't be remembering who IS doing cool stuff in these strange times and writing award recommendations! Give us scribes something to do when we're able to actually get together in person, tell our crowns and coronets who is doing cool stuff!

Hope everyone is doing as well as can be expected,

Yours in Service,

Vémundr Syvursson

Web Minister – Esa inghean Macalasdair 2018-07-03

Greetings!

It has snuck up on me but almost two years have passed since I took on the role of webminister. I think a lot has been done in that time including making an updated, mobile-friendly website. Its my personal preference to keep the website in WordPress as a lot of work went into switching over from HTML code. WordPress is a user-friendly content management system that has a lot of Kingdom support.

The most time consuming part of the webminister role was the knowledge gathering associated with compiling files, photos, lists etc. to help preserve Seagirt's history. I have had a lot of help getting information ready to be published online, including compressing and organizing the digital Glaucous files and updating the Champions lists. But there's still more to be done, such as annotating and organizing the tapestry photos and continuing to vet the list of Champions. Greta, in her role as Keeper of the Flame of Knowledge, has done an amazing job in compiling the regalia info, as well as helping to fill in the gaps regarding Champions.

It almost seems as though these could be two separate roles. I suggest that a separate officer role be established that helps with the knowledge gathering and preservation of Seagirtian history. An archivist role, maybe called the Seagirt Cleric? This role wouldn't require website knowledge, as I would think the information wouldn't only be distributed on the website, but through the Glaucouses, Facebook, TUTR classes, etc.

With regards to my personal involvement in the webminister role, I am willing to continue for another year if the Barony would have me. However, I know there has been other interest in the role, so I don't want to prevent other people from having a turn. I am open to discussions and suggestions from the other officers and populace.

Esa

Web Minister

- 2 months left in term, Esa is willing to extend if no one else wants to step into the position. The position will be advertised and candidates will be discussed.
- A Deputy position will be made (name to be decided in the forum) as per Esa's suggestion for an archivist role.

Web Minister – Esa inghean Macalasdair 2018-07-03

Greetings!

Not many updates this month. Event cancellations and virtual Baronial curia updates. Greta has ensured the OP is up to date for all of our champions, however talking to Vemundr, the code to pull the data from the OP automatically to our website is more complicated than he thought. I may just do the updates manually on our site, if required.

I have not heard of anyone who was interested in taking over the Webminister role, I can put another call out on FB.

Esa

| There was no June 2020 report, either written or verbal. COVID brain.

The effort to get pre-designed and painted charter blanks done for the next post-COVID Crowns of An Tir, whoever they wind up being and whenever that actually happens, is well underway. I need to follow up to see what the easiest way of getting blanks to Seagirt is, given the lack of our usual SCA courier services.

Known World Heraldic & Scribal is this coming weekend (Friday & Saturday evening Pacific time) and has a bunch of scribal stuff as well as the heraldry. Registration is closed but many of the classes will be recorded and posted to the Lochac YouTube channel.

Nothing much else to report. Stay well, stay safe, and stay sane, everyone.
