Section 1 (may be amended by an action of the Baron and Baroness of Seagirt, in consultation with the Seneschal(e).)

Article 1. Scope

1.01 This is the Seagirt Customary, as permitted by Corpora, which is intended to aid in the smooth operation of the Barony of Seagirt (Barony), a branch of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (SCA). It is not a corporate publication of the SCA, and does not delineate SCA policies.

1.02 This Customary is superseded by Federal, Provincial and local Laws and Ordinances, the Governing Documents of the SCA, the Laws of the Kingdom of An Tir, and the Laws of the Principality of Tir Righ. There are three different sections of the customary. Section 1 may be amended by an action of the Baron and Baroness of Seagirt, in consultation with the Seneschal(e). Section 2 is controlled by the Baron and Baroness of the branch and the authority invested in them by the Crown of An Tir. Any items that cannot be amended locally are shown in bold. These items are amended by other documents such as Kingdom Laws or Corpora.

1.03 This Customary is not to be construed as law of any nature, but a document of customs, local policy, and implementation procedures for the Barony's operation.

Article 2. Definitions

Ambassador: An Ambassador is a Citizen upon who is bestowed the honour of representing an Embassy of the Baronial Coronet and the Barony to a distant branch, such as when the citizen moves or travels to a distant land.

Baronial Coronet: The Baronial Coronet is the Baron, Baroness, or both of these acting in concert.

Barony: The Barony (adj., Baronial) is the Barony of Seagirt unless otherwise specified. It is represented by the Greater Victoria area of British Columbia including Sooke, the Gulf Islands and as far up as Cobble Hill as defined in the Principality of Tir Righ records.

Champion: A Champion is a person who has been victorious in a tournament to select a Baronial Champion.

Citizen: A Baronial Citizen is a person who either lives within the Baronial boundaries designated by the SCA or has been granted a Charter of Citizenship by the Baronial Coronet.

Consulting Event Steward: A Consulting Event Steward is an experienced Event Steward guiding a less experienced or new Event Steward in running an event.

Consensus: Consensus is the general accord of Citizens at a Baronial Council where there is no strong opposition. See the operating guidelines, Article 6.

Council: a Baronial business meeting, or the body of Citizens in attendance at a business meeting of the Barony.

Curia: the Baronial Council when one or both of the Baron & Baroness are in attendance.

Deputy: A Deputy is a person chosen by an Official to assist in the performance of the Official's duties, and who may or may not be in training to succeed the Official.

Deputy, Contingency: A Contingency Deputy is a person approved by Council who is capable of performing the duties of an Office when the Officer is unable to function. By Kingdom Law, all Contingency Deputies MUST be paid members and meet all requirements of an Officer in An Tir.

Deputy, Successor: A Successor is a person who has been approved by Council as the designated successor to an Office.

Event Steward: An Event Steward is a person to whom the Council has given responsibility for the management of an event.

Financial Committee: The Financial Committee is a meeting of the Baronial Coronet, the Seneschal(e), the Chancellor of the Exchequer and one other Citizen.

Governing Documents: Governing Documents are the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws, and Corpora of the SCA, and the Governing and Policy Decisions of its Board as found in its Organizational Handbook.

Kingdom: The Kingdom is the Kingdom of An Tir, unless otherwise specified.

Liaison: A Liaison is a person who reports between the Barony and other entities of the SCA. (e.g., Branch Liaison, Royal Liaison)

Member: A Member is a paid member of the SCA as defined in Governing Documents.

Office, Required: Required Offices are those required for a branch of the SCA to be a Barony, as listed in Governing Documents and/or Kingdom Law.

Officer, Acting: An Acting Officer is a person approved by Council who is acting instead of an Officer and has the same rights and responsibilities. Any Officer not yet warranted is considered an "acting" Officer.

Officer, Great: A Great Officer holds an Office defined as such in Governing Documents, Kingdom Law and/or by an action of the Council.

Officer, Lesser: A Lesser Officer is any Officer of the Barony that is a Deputy of a Great Officer, makes independent decisions, and usually has a Kingdom Superior.

Official: An Official is a person acting in an official capacity for the Barony (e.g., Baronial Coronet, Officer, Successor, Event Steward).

Scholar: A Scholar swears fealty to the Baron.

Sergeantry: The Sergeantry is the host of current Sergeants, Yeomen, and Gallants. They swear fealty to the Baroness.

SCA: The SCA is the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.

ARTICLE 3 -- OFFICIALS OF THE BARONY

Note A: No one is permitted to be Contingency Deputy to a position they cannot hold (e.g., the Seneschal(e) cannot be Contingency Deputy to the Exchequer). If an Office is open, the responsibilities of the office fall to the overseeing Officer, or to the Seneschal(e) if no overseeing Officer exists.

Note B: Not all Offices are filled at all times. Some are open or dormant until an interested party comes along (i.e., Offices can be open, not filled, and still be considered Offices).

3.01 General Duties for all Officials include, where applicable, but are not limited to:

A) Being a paid member of the SCA and providing proof of same to the Seneschal(e).

B) Contacting the Office's Kingdom and/or Principality superior as soon as possible after assuming an office.

ARTICLE 4 -- OPERATING GUIDELINES

4.01 Any individual may petition (not necessarily in a period style) the Council for a Charter of Citizenship. Petitions by individuals who reside outside Baronial Territory will be reviewed based on visible and sufficient participation to be identified as being affiliated with the Barony. A person submitting a petition, or who holds a Charter of Citizenship, may withdraw petition and/or Citizenship with written notice to the Seneschal(e). Such individuals may reapply.

Note: Notices of possible changes to Citizenship status will be published on the website for two months, prior to approval by Council.

4.02 The Baronial Council meeting shall be the first Tuesday of each month unless otherwise changed by Council and published on the approved mailing list.

A) Decisions are made by a consensus of the Council. The Council will work towards consensus. If consensus is not achieved, the Council will work towards at least a 75% agreement by a polling.

B) Minutes shall be kept of Council meetings and accepted into the records at the next Council after any necessary corrections.

i) Minutes shall include, as applicable: date, time, and place of meeting; who is moderating; list of attendees signing in; acknowledgement of acceptance of the previous minutes and any corrections; financial report; reports of Officials; reports of committees; event reports; summaries of discussions of old and new business; records of the appointment of committees and the names of their members; record of adjournment and the time. All written reports received will be attached as part of the minutes.

ii) The minutes shall be posted on the website as a separate document no later than one week prior to the next council meeting.

C) During a Council meeting, if the moderator determines that the situation warrants, proceedings may be interrupted for an off-the-record discussion which shall not be recorded other than as a note in the minutes of the subject discussed and that it took place.

D) The Chancellor of the Exchequer shall have up-to-date financial records available at the beginning of the Council meeting.

E) Both the Seneschal(e) and the Baronial Coronet shall have the right to exercise veto of any consensus decision of Council. In the event that such power is exercised, the person doing so shall explain to council the reason for doing so. In the event that such reasoning is not accepted, the Principality Seneschal shall be consulted prior to the implementing of the decision of council.

4.03 Emergency matters may be dealt with by the Seneschal and/or Deputy Seneschal in consultation with the Baronial Coronet to be ratified at the next regular or specially convened council meeting.

a. Emergency matters are matters that need to be dealt with in 72 hours or less.

4.04 An Official's term of office shall be two years except for Event Stewards and other short-term capacity Officials whose terms shall end upon completion of their duties. Greater Officers shall declare a period of open applications 3 months before the ending of the term, to allow for training time. Lesser Officers shall declare a period of open applications 1 month before the ending of the term. An Officer may then apply for a maximum of 2 one year extensions.

A) Requests for applications for replacement of Officers will be published on the Baronial Facebook page.

B) Applications shall be in writing (or email) to the Officer, the Baronial Coronet and the Seneschal(e).

C) Discussions of an Official's selection will be off record, and shall include considerations regarding the necessity of an Officer's presence at Council should an applicant be unable to attend Council frequently or at all. Candidates and others of significant relation to the candidate will leave the room prior to the discussion. Those of significant relation to the candidate will be polled privately by the moderator before a final decision is made by Council.

4.05 Officials determined to be deficient in the performance of duties shall be subject to sanctions by the Council, (e.g., warnings, suspension, and/or the Kingdom/ Principality superior shall be requested to remove the Officer from the position).

4.06 Executive Council meetings are to be held only in situations where decisions must be made prior to the next regularly scheduled Council meeting.

A) Minutes of any Executive Council meeting must be taken and kept with the Council meeting minutes.

B) Any actions taken must be discussed at the next scheduled Council meeting.

C) A telephone poll shall not be considered to be a meeting of the Executive Council.

4.07 The Financial Committee shall meet once a year to discuss the budget.

4.08 The Baronial Pavilion is the "home away from home" for Citizens. The Coronets, with the Council's approval, shall determine if the pavilion should be taken to a non-SCA event. The person(s) who transport the pavilion to an SCA event may be reimbursed for their fuel costs.

A) Reimbursement details can be found in the Financial Policy.

4.09 Property belonging to the Barony shall be inventoried when changes occur, and copies of such inventories shall be filed with the Seneschal(e), the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and the Chamberlain. Inventories to be reported as the Chamberlain specifies, and in any case, not less than once a year.

4.10 An action by the Council may override this document, with the exception of [GI] items, in special circumstances.

4.11 No activities at Seagirtian events may be recorded, in any medium, without first notifying people who may be involved that it is being done such that they may opt out of any such recording if they choose to do so.

ARTICLE 5 -- EVENT STEWARDS AND EVENTS

5.01 For the Barony to sponsor an event, a written proposal must be submitted to, and approved by, the Council. The proposal must include: nature of event, date, time, place, general budget, names of proposed Event Steward, Contingency Deputy, and any consulting event steward, primary crew, and full and complete contact information.

Seneschal(e), and Exchequer are precluded from applying for the positions of Event Steward for Baronial Events due to inherent duties already assumed for any Baronial Event.

5.02 Event Stewards or their Contingency Deputy are required to attend the Council meetings, as applicable, prior to the event for which the Event Steward has responsibility. Reports shall be presented monthly from the time of acceptance of the proposal until event closure.

A) Event Stewards are to work with Officials to ensure that event-related duties are fulfilled.

B) As applicable, Officials who have duties at upcoming events are required to attend the last two Council meetings prior to that event. If the Official cannot attend, an informed deputy may be delegated to attend the meetings instead.

C) Event Stewards are to ensure that any event-related needs are fulfilled, including:

i) Maintaining a paid membership until the event is officially closed and the final paperwork submitted.

ii) Creating copy for publication which includes directions and all pertinent contact information for the Event Steward and any other necessary assistants, so that anyone is able to contact the event staff should they have special needs or questions.

iii) Having the Seneschal(e) approve all marketing publications related to the event prior to dissemination.

iv) Getting event copy to Kingdom/ Principality Calendar, and appropriate newsletters, for publication after it has been approved by the Seneschal(e). Event copy must be submitted to the Web Minister for publication.

v) Posting any necessary signs for visual assistance to the site.

vi) Ensuring appropriate and sufficient waivers and sign-in sheets are provided and used, and submitting them to the Seneschal(e).

5.03 Officials and Event Stewards shall give a closing report on an event at the Council meeting immediately following the event, barring circumstances beyond their control. If this Council meeting is the week after the event, the Event Steward may, instead, first file a preliminary report at the Council meeting immediately following the event, provide the moneys and a draft financial report to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, submit sign-in sheets and waivers to the Seneschal(e), and then present the closing report at the next Council meeting.

An event will not be considered closed until:

A) Gate sheets and waivers are submitted to the Seneschal(e).

B) A financial report has been submitted to the Chancellor of the Exchequer (within 30 days).

C) All Baronial equipment (regardless of where it is stored) has been returned to the satisfaction of the Chamberlain and the Seneschal(e). Return items clean, dry and in a timely fashion. Report any damage or loss.

5.04 Event Stewards shall appoint a Contingency Deputy who shall be kept fully informed of the details of the event. Event Stewards may appoint additional deputies as needed for the running of an event.

5.05 If a person approved as an Event Steward has insufficient experience in running events or is new to the area, a Consulting Event Steward may be required by the Council.

Note: The Council has the right to require an Event Steward to have a Consulting Event

Steward for an event. The Council may not require an Event Steward to use a specific Consulting Event Steward, but it may require the Event Steward to choose a different Consulting Event Steward more acceptable to the Council.

5.06 It is recommended that no Event Steward have more than one event open at a time.

5.07 The Event Steward will provide a list of names for those people receiving complimentary admission to the site (i.e., a "comp list") to Council prior to the event and to the event gate. This list will include the person's name, and office or obligation to the event. It is recommended that this list be put on a separate gate sheet.

5.08 It is recommended that no Event Steward run the same event more than two years in a row.

Section 2 (may be amended by the Baron and Baroness of the branch based upon the authority invested in them by the Crown of An Tir.)

ARTICLE 6 -- CITIZENSHIP

6.01 Rights of Citizens include:

- A) Applying to become, or being recommended to become, an Official, as appropriate to Officer or Coronet, so long as the Citizen lives within Baronial lands or holds a Charter of Citizenship.
- B) Participating in decisions of the Council.
- C) Displaying the Baronial Badge.

6.02 SUGGESTED responsibility guidelines for all Citizens include:

- A) Being a paid member of The Society.
- B) Actively participating in Baronial affairs.
- C) Attending Council occasionally.
- D) Volunteering service-time at events.
- E) Keeping up to date with Baronial activities and current events.
- F) Recommending deserving persons for awards and recognitions, as appropriate.
- G) Behaving in a courteous and chivalric manner toward others.

ARTICLE 7 – CHAMPIONS, SERGEANTRY, SCHOLARS

Note: All Champions have equal standing; likewise, all divisions of the Sergeantry and all Scholars are equal in standing.

7.01 Champions, members of the Sergeantry and Scholars hold the rights and responsibilities of Citizens as noted in their ceremonial documents of recognition, for so long as they remain such, and therefore in fealty, to the Baronial Coronet.

7.02 Champions, members of the Sergeantry and Scholars must swear fealty (for details, see 5.04, 5.07, 5.10).

7.03 Champions, members of the Sergeantry and Scholars have the right to wear regalia appropriate to their station.

7.04 The general tenure of a Champion is approximately one year. The tenure begins when the Champion is recognized during a Baronial Court of the Championship Tournament in which there was victory, and it ends during a Baronial Court of the following Championship

Tournament before a successor is recognized. General tenure guidelines may be modified if circumstances dictate. Currently, the Baronial host of Champions include:

- The Heavy Champion, "Defender of Seagirt"
- The Rapier Champion, "Captain of Her Excellency's Grenadiers"
- The Archery Champion, "Marksman of Seagirt"
- The Arts and Sciences Champion, "Keeper of the Flame of Knowledge"
- The Bardic Champion, "Siren of Seagirt"

All Champions swear fealty to the Baronial Coronet.

7.05 Further rights of Champions include:

- A) Sitting at the Baronial High Table. (This does not apply if superseding Royalty is present and therefore controls the table e.g. King and Queen)
- B) Advising the Baronial Coronet in matters of peace and war.

7.06 Further responsibilities of Champions include:

- A) Attending Baronial events whenever possible during their tenure as Champion.
- B) Defending the Baronial Coronet and the Barony against all challengers.
- C) Assisting in coordinating a tournament to choose a successor.
- D) Attending both the tournament to choose a successor and the successor's investiture.
- E) Serving the Baron and Baroness as a member of their Court by attending the Baronial Coronet in Court and Procession.
- F) Relinquishing the Championship if unable to fulfill the duties of the office, whereas the Coronet may appoint an interim Champion until another Champion Tournament can be held and a new Champion be inducted.

7.07 Due to the necessity to sign for regalia, anyone entering a Baronial Championship competition must be a paid member of the SCA, Inc.

7.08 There is no set tenure for a member of the Sergeantry. Other circumstances may conclude tenure of a member of the Sergeantry (e.g., a member moves away or remains inactive for a long period of time). When a Baroness steps down, the entire Sergeantry is released to the Crown until a successor is chosen and the entire Sergeantry once again swears fealty to the new Baroness. Sergeantry membership includes:

- A) Sergeants, whose main concern is Heavy Armoured Combat.
- B) Yeomen, whose main concern is Target, Combat Archery, Thrown Weapons, and/or Siege Weaponry.
- C) Gallants, whose main concern is Rapier Combat and/or Cut and Thrust.

7.09 Those who have passed the trials consist of:

- A) Sergeants, Yeomen or Gallants - these are active members of the Sergeantry whom Her Excellency feels are contributing actively at least once per month. They wear the belt, bracer or glove.
- B) Sergeantry Emeritii - these are semi-active members of the Sergeantry whom Her Excellency feels are contributing in an advisory capacity and cannot participate at least once per month. They still wear the belt, bracer or glove.
- C) Retired Sergeantry - these are voluntarily no longer active members of the Sergeantry. They may advise Her Excellency on occasion. They no longer wear the belt, bracer or glove. (This is the honourable discharge)
- D) Those dismissed from service will not be entitled "retired Sergeant" and will no longer be considered in an advisory capacity.

7.10 Further rights of the Sergeantry include:

- A) Attending the Baroness, as appropriate, in Court and Procession.

B) Advising the Baronial Coronet in matters of peace and war.

7.11 Further responsibilities of the Sergeantry include:

- A) Encouraging others in the practice of their chosen area of expertise.
- B) Assisting the Baron or Baroness, as appropriate, in areas of Baronial Affairs.
- C) Serving as retinue for visiting nobility.

7.12 There is no set tenure for a Scholar. Other circumstances may conclude tenure of a Scholar (e.g., a Scholar moves away or remains inactive for a long period of time). When a Baron steps down, all Scholars are released to the Crown until a successor is chosen and all Scholars once again swear fealty to the new Baron.

7.13 Further rights of the Scholar include:

- A) Attending the Baron, as appropriate, in Court and Procession.
- B) Advising the Baronial Coronet in matters of arts and science.

7.14 Further responsibilities of the Scholar include:

- A) Encouraging others in the practice of their chosen area of expertise.
- B) Assisting the Baron or Baroness, as appropriate, in areas of Baronial Affairs.
- C) Serving as retinue for visiting nobility.

ARTICLE 8 -- AWARDS, ORDERS, AND RECOGNITIONS

8.01 The Orders, Awards, and Recognitions of the Barony are:

- A) Orders: Seagull, Beacon of Insula Magna, Orca, Silver Whale
- B) Awards: The Spirit of Violante, Rock, Silent Harp, Silent Hammer, Golden Bear, Silver Bear, Black Bear, Narwhal, Otter of Seagirt, Torch & Key
- C) Recognition: Baronial Favour

8.02 Traditionally, the Baronial Coronet consults with the members of the Polling Orders, as appropriate, prior to inducting any person into that Baronial Order. The Polling Orders of the Barony are: The Seagull and The Beacon of Insula Magna.

8.03 Presentation of Awards, Recognitions, or induction into Orders, shall be reported as soon as is possible to the Dexter Gauntlet after the presentation. It is the responsibility of the Baronial Coronet to ensure that a list of the Orders, Awards, and Recognitions presented by them is provided to the Chronicler for inclusion on the website, and the Herald for inclusion in Baronial records.
